Allen Dulles Alerts Americas on Red Bids

CPYRGHT

Allen W. Dulles asserted last night that there is "increasing evidence" that Communist countries were offering arms to Western Hemisphere nations.

The director of the Central Intelligence Agency made the statement in a recorded interview on the American Broadcasting Company radio network.

He recalled the shipment of Czechoslovak arms to Guatemala in the spring of 1954, when the country was under the pro-Communist regime of President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman. He declared the Soviets are not likely to forget how nearly they succeeded in that, and they may try the same thing in other parts even of this continent."
